

1.2 – Purpose of the Project

The goal of Product Placement Analysis is to assess and improve where products are placed to make them more visible grab customers attention boost sales and make shopping. By looking at things like how many productsre sold what category they belong to, their price, promotions, who the customers are and how many people walk by businesses can decide where to place products to get the best results.

Key Goals

- Make products more visible and known to customers.
- Boost sales. Earn more revenue.
- Make shopping an experience for customers.
- Find the spots to place products.
- Understand what customers like to buy and what they prefer.
- Use shelf space and store layout in the way possible.
- See how promotions affect product sales.
- Study how the number of people walking by affects sales.
- Help make decisions about products and marketing.
- Get ahead of competitors by placing products

Project Goal

The goal of this project is to study product placement strategies and see how things, like where a product's placed, its price, promotions, who the customers are and how many people walk by affect sales. This will help businesses place products in a way that makes them more profitable.